EBSCOHOST Online Training

Article by Danesh Ramuthi

On, 22nd June 2021, the Library Department has organised an online training session for the EBSCOHOST resource, a leading provider of research databases, e-journals, and other academics and non-academics online articles. The session was conducted by EBSCOHOST Training Manager Miss Nadia Davis to 30 participants of AMU's lecturers and staff from 2.30 p.m. to 3.30 p.m.

During the session, the trainer demonstrates both the basic and the advanced search on MEDLINE Complete using terms such as MESH, which is the controlled vocabulary (thesaurus) of the National Library of Medicine (NLM).

Participants also learned simple tips and tricks for using CINAHL, including special limiters, subject headings, and Malaysian content, as well as the typical field codes used for CINAHL Clinical Queries.

The entire training was conducted via Microsoft Teams and no technical issues were encountered. At the end of the training session, there was a fun Q & A session.The recordings can be viewed at any time.

Research should ignite debate, generate ideas and, above all, drive positive change. By looking across a range of disciplines through the eyes of subject experts, we can achieve clarity on some of the world's biggest challenges. Our vision is to deliver high-quality, applied research to a global audience of researchers, students and professionals, who can then convert theory into action.
